The Way We See It: Photo Art by Local Photographers

More than 100 photographs will be on display from Jan. 29-Feb. 22 by Westbridge Camera Club members.

Information provided by the Westbridge Camera Club Community contributor

The Westbridge Camera Club will be presenting a large show of more than 100 photographs by its members called, The Way We See It: Photo Art By Local Photographers at the High Road Gallery, 12 E. Stafford Ave., in Worthington between Jan. 29 and Feb. 22. The public artist's reception is from 2 to 4 p.m. Feb. 2.

Located in Worthington, the Westbridge Camera Club meetings are held at the Worthington Griswold Center, 777 High St., from September through May. Westbridge is central Ohio's oldest camera club.

As a member of the club, participants have ongoing opportunities to take their photography to the next level. Opportunities include educational programs, photo competitions, critique nights, photographic outings, exhibiting work, friendship and fun. Those who are interested in photography can visit the group for a free trial Westbridge Camera Club meeting.

Educational programs are held on the first Wednesday of each month. For all camera club meetings, social time begins at 7 p.m. and the meeting is from 7:20 to 9 p.m. Past educational programs have been on "Slice and Dice," a critique of images, and "Photoshop Layers."

Competition night is held on the third Wednesday of each month. Competitions are for photographers of all skill levels. The competition categories include digital uploads, color prints and monochrome prints. Some months, the competition photos must have a specific theme.

The competitions are judged by professional photographers and college professors of the arts. The membership at the camera club includes some of the best photographers in Ohio.

Critique nights are held on months that have a fifth Wednesday. Members who want constructive comments on one of their photos can have it critiqued by a panel of judges from their own membership. Great constructive advice and ideas are given to help members improve their photography.

Our members schedule photographic outings on a regular basis. Members can enjoy the company and friendship of others while photographing interesting new places.

Recent trips have been to various Columbus-area metro parks, downtown Columbus, the Grove City balloon launch and Schnormeier Gardens.

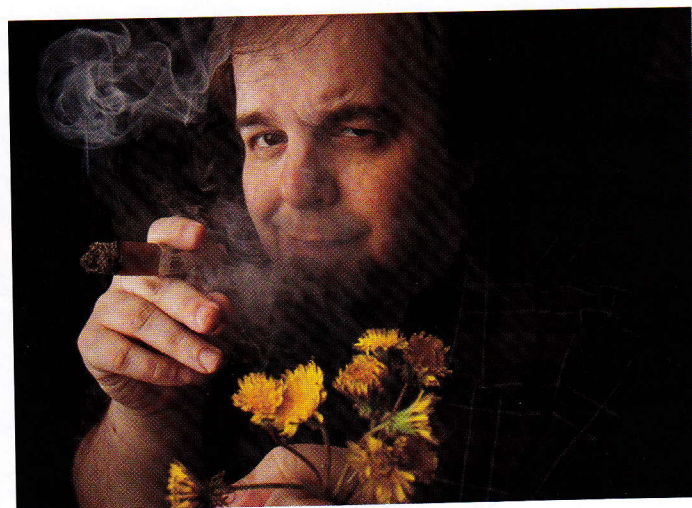

With a portfolio of photos, members have opportunities to exhibit their work. Our members are currently displaying their photos at the McConnell Arts Center, the Zanesville Museum of Art, the Westminster-Thurber Community Center, Westerville Starbucks, Starbucks on Sawmill and Java Central in Westerville.

Please see our show at The High Road Gallery, and join us at the Westbridge Camera Club for friendship, fun, and all these
